In general, HIPAA privacy rules give individuals the right to request a restriction on uses and disclosures of their Protected Health Information (PHI). The individual is also provided the right to request confidential communications or that a communication of PHI be made by alternate means, such as sending correspondence to the individual's office instead of the individual's home. Please review and answer the following carefully.

(WE WILL NOT RELEASE INFORMATION TO ANYONE NOT LISTED)

This is also to inform you that Protective Health Information (PHI) may be used and disclosed by the covered entity, which include physician offices, insurance companies, home health agencies, and entities necessary to carry out your treatment, payment, or health care operations. This allows us to provide/obtain information to covered entities for continued treatment. You have the right to request restrictions on uses and disclosures of PHI for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes. The covered entity is not required to comply with the individual's request, but if the covered entity does agree to the request, the restriction is binding on the covered entity. You have the right to revoke this consent in writing, except to the extent that the covered entity has taken action in reliance on the consent. The terms of this consent are subject to change if new HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act), rules are implemented.

This is to verify that I have read and understand the above information by signing this statement and, I am giving Hill Country Medical Associates consent to release my personal information as described above.
